Imagine you could be a part of a multicultural society and spend time with new people making new experiences with media, culture and sports!

Our project offers the possibility to meet different interesting people and have a lot of fun together by spending your time with us. Therefore you can choose a workshop you are interested in.

Workshops 2016:

September

an exciting day on which we will go rambling

October

creative media workshop, such as a radio show

November theatre workshop

On September 1st at 6 pm in the building of "Haus der Begegnung" we will present our project. For further information please contact us.
